

Become a full-time Streamer on Whatnot

Buy: inventory that sells itself

Stream: Profitably

Ship: Fast. Create repeat buyers

STREAM

- Video setup + gear
- Keeping cards organized
- The number system for sales
- Title of Stream
- Thumbnails Best Practice
- Menu of Segments
- How to get people to "share" your stream
- Prizes / Giveaways (when should I do it?)
- The ideal week
- How long should I stream for
- Should I sell graded or non graded?
- Should I rip packs?
- How to change the types of auctions mid-stream
- What streaming analytics I pay attention to
- how do I know whether or not I'm selling each card profitably?
- how many hours a week should I sell to be full time?
- when should I stream if I have a job already?

BUY

- where do you find cards?
- how are you negotiating?
- why do you pay in cash?
- what's a normal % to buy at?
- are there certain types of pokemon you buy and look for?
- how do you know which cards will sell easily?
- what % of your business bank account do you dedicate to buying inventory?
- how do you build a team to help you price out your cards?
- how often do you buy cards?
- how much card inventory do you keep?
- how do you keep inventory safe at home?

SHIP

- what is the ideal workflow for shipping post-stream
- how do you ship within 24 hrs?
- how do I protect the cards when I ship?
- what material do you use to ship?
- how do you build a shipping team?
- What is on you vs what is WhatNot's job with shipping?
- how do you handle customer support?
- how do you get 5-star reviews?
- at what stage did you transition out of shipping from your garage to an office space?

STREAM

"build a show not a stream"

- recurring segments
- inside jokes
- "if you know, you know..." moments

Auction Psychology

- anchoring (start price framing)
- scarcity (1 left, no more)
- urgency

go deeper

Streamer Archetype

- The Hype Beast
(fast, loud, chaotic)
- The Collector
(education + story)
- The Entertainer
(fun first, card second)

INVENTORY STRATEGY

different inventory means different stream types

Cheap vs Big Cards

- How to take care of big buyers

WHEN THE STREAM DIES PLAYBOOK

- bids low
- chat quiet
- energy drops

STREAMER ANALYTICS

Revenue / hr
Sell-through
Avg order Value

CHANNEL IDENTITY

- what makes your streams different?
- what feels like NeoWorld

$$100K \text{ yr} = $1,923/\text{wk}$$

$$10 \text{ hr/week} = $192/\text{hr}$$

$$15 \text{ hr/week} = $128/\text{hr}$$

if you can average $150/hr and show up 10-15hr a week... you're a $100,000 streamer get reps ... get 100hr of streaming fast

no reps = no growth

The Basics:

- clean desk / organization
- clear camera + lighting
- fast auctions
- no dead air
- acknowledging chat
